GP Curriculum statements – 15.8 Sexual Health Learning Outcomes that could be delivered in Secondary care (Linked to Competency areas in the Curriculum)

Learning Outcome		Competency Area
	e range of conditions which may present with genital symptoms and describe tial diagnoses to include conditions which are not sexually transmitted.	Knowledge baseSpecific Problem solving skills
	e roles and responsibilities of primary and secondary care with particular the interface.	Primary Care Management
3. Demonstrate judgemental	e an ability to take a sexual history that is confidential, sensitive and non I.	Person centred careAttitudinal aspects
	e how to perform a sexual health examination and how to take appropriate and microbiological and virology swabs	Knowledge basePsychomotor skills
5. Describe the	e principles of treatment for common conditions.	Knowledge base
6. Describe the	e social and political context of sexual health medicine	Scientific AspectsAttitudinal aspects
7. Demonstrate disease	e a knowledge of the natural history, testing and clinical presentations of HIV	✓ • Knowledge base
8. Demonstrate	e an understanding of the legal requirements and the principles involved in	Person-centred care.

the provision of sexual health services for people under the age of 16 and under the age of 13.	•	Contextual aspects
 Demonstrate a knowledge of the available methods of contraception, their indications and contra-indications and the process of facilitating the decision making process for the patient 		Knowledge base
10. Describe the role of health promotion in the control of sexually transmitted disease		Community orientation